Choosing a FOSS License

Lawrence Rosen

Rosenlaw & Einschlag, a technology law firm (www.rosenlaw.com)

Instructor in Law, Stanford University

Author of "Open Source Licensing: Software Freedom and Intellectual Property Law" (Prentice Hall 2004)

3001 King Ranch Road

Ukiah, CA 95482

707-485-1242 ❖ fax: 707-485-1243

lrosen@rosenlaw.com

1. Use the project license

(EPL, for example)

2. Use an existing license

3. Use GPLv2 or GPLv3

4. Use LGPL or AGPL

5. Use Apache License 2.0

6. Use a corporate license

7. Use MPL or a derivative

8. Use OSL/AFL 3.0

9. Use the right license